

How to set up a (Creative) Business in Dubai Design District

Register now

Dubai has been described as being at the cornerstone of Europe, Asia and Africa with 90% of countries located within 8 hours travel time. Home to over 2 million people spanning 200 nationalities, Dubai has established itself as a truly international city and is seeking to solidify its position with the growth of initiatives and developments to enhance the design and cultural scene.

Dubai Design District, known as D3, is a specifically designation Free Zone that aims to foster opportunities in luxury, design, retail and hospitality. A mixed-use development that includes creative office space, showrooms, a conference centre as well as retail, residential, hotel developments, it is reflective of the growing interest by UAE nationals and expatriates to not just consume fashion, design, and luxury goods and services, but also in the development of their own design and creative skills. D3 seeks to enhance creative talents, encourage the growth of new ideas and become established at the heart of Dubai's design future.

Join our forthcoming webinar to learn more about D3, a hub for design in Dubai now and in the future.

Speakers will include:

- Mr Umran Shah, Dubai Design District
- Ms Ranjana Abraham, UAE Lead Advisor for Creative Industries, Retail & Consumer Goods

UK companies will be able to pose questions to the invited specialists and UKTI officials about the design scene and Dubai Design District as well as the services offered by UKTI to UK companies.

Please register for the webinar using the below link:

<https://attendeegotowebinar.com/register/5316085206780864770>

Date:

16 December 2014

Time:

09:30 - 10:30 (UK time)

Contact:

Main Contact: Ceri Elliott-Yates

Tel: 00 971 4 309 4326

Email: ceri.yates@fco.gov.uk

Organisation: UKTI

Alternative Contact: Ranjana Abraham

Tel: 00 971 4 309 4237

Email:

ranjana.abraham@fco.gov.uk

Organisation: UKTI

Participation is free of charge